

A talk and slideshow by Patricia Skidmore, daughter of a British Child Migrant.

Where: Sardis Library, 5745 Tyson Road, Chilliwack BC

When: Thursday March 14, 2019

Time: 10:30 – 12 noon

Marjorie was happy to see the second book coming together.

The stories of the British Child Migrants, also known as Home Children, have for the most part, remained untold. Marjorie: Too Afraid To Cry tells of Marjorie Arnison's 1937 journey to Canada as a 10-year-old girl. Marjorie: Her War Years gives an account of Marjorie's five years at the Prince of Wales Fairbridge Farm School just south of Duncan, on Vancouver Island, BC.

For more information contact: Patricia Skidmore: patskidmore@shaw.ca